Eye Test FAQ's

If I'm over 60, am I entitled to a FREE eye test at home?

Yes, if you cannot get to a high street opticians unaccompanied, visit our website for more details - www.outsideclinic.com/ServicesFree.html

How long will the visit last?

Typically the optician will be with you for up to an hour to examine your eyes and discuss your optical requirements.

Will I be able to choose spectacles?

Yes, a comprehensive range of spectacle frames are available from our opticians to suit all pockets, ranging from free (to those who qualify on income eligibility) to designer names. There is also a range of over 500 lenses to choose from, to accommodate all types of prescriptions.

What do I need to sign for my NHS test, and does the optician need to see proof?

Yes, you will be required to sign a GOS (General Ophthalmic Services) application form for the test to be conducted. Proof of eligibility will be requested by your optician, as required under current regulations. Your signature is also confirmation of your entitlement, should proof not be available.

Hearing Test FAQ's

I am entitled to a FREE hearing test, am I entitled to a FREE hearing aid?

Whilst we offer a free hearing test our hearing aid dispensing service is private. If you wish to have NHS hearing aids you must go through your GP.

How long will the visit last?

The Hearing Aid Audiologist can be with you for up to an hour and a half, depending on your requirements.

Will I be able to choose hearing aids?

Yes. After an audiogram has been taken, the Hearing Aid Audiologist can help you choose hearing aids to help suit your hearing loss, lifestyle, dexterity and budget.

What if the hearing aid audiologist finds wax in my ear?

If the Hearing Aid Audiologist finds your ears to be either partially or wholly obstructed with wax then they will refer you to have it removed. If you believe that the presence of wax may be contributing to your hearing loss, speak to your audiologist about wax removal or a referral to your GP.

Home Hearing Tests

Almost one in seven of us live with some degree of hearing loss. In fact, according to the latest RNID figures, 40% of over 50's and 70% of over 70's will have some degree of hearing loss.

Hearing loss occurs naturally with age but often occurs so gradually that we are not immediately aware of it. Having difficulty hearing clearly with background noise, having to ask friends and family to repeat themselves and needing to turn the television up are all early signs of hearing loss.

Hearing is an important sense and one that contributes greatly to our enjoyment of life, this is why, like your eyesight, it should be regularly checked.

The Outside Clinic offers:

- Fully qualified, registered and experienced Hearing Aid Audiologists
- Hearing Aids from only £295
- Full refund if you change your mind within 60 days from fitting

“The Audiologist was excellent, he explained everything to me and was a real gentleman”
